Local Classes, Readings, Parties and Special Events - Worldwide taped Readings by phone

8/20/02-- An important heads-up well in advance-- Based on a great deal of research into past economic patterns, I am predicting a bottom to both stock market and real estate prices July 2004- January 2005. It should be a buyer's market in early '05. Firm up your financial foundations, get out of debt, and make your buy and sell choices for the next 2 years accordingly.

Think of me when planning parties or special events in the Los Angeles and Ventura County areas. Your Party or Special Event becomes truly memorable with fun and fascinating astrology readings! In a party or special event setting, individual or couples readings last 8-10 minutes. Readings are upbeat, humorous and fun- but also include important information to create take-home value for your guests. There's always a long line-- guests just love it!!

I am beginning a trial run of monthly predictions for each Zodiac Sign, in answer to your many requests. I have avoided doing this in the past due to the necessary generalizations- but let's try it and see what we think! As all predictive columns, this is written based on the Solar House system. If you know your Ascendant (Rising Sign) read that section as well as your Sun Sign. For September 2002:

Aries: It's been hard to feel supported for some time, as relationships with sibs and neighbors continue to be constrained and friends just aren't very reliable. Work continues to be a major focus of attention and energy in September, and it may still be difficult to find time for relationships- much as you want it, though this may become easier toward month end. You have a sweet opportunity to enjoy love and creativity- do make this a priority. Your long period of deep transformation is gradually coming to an end- use what energy is left to make the changes you still need to make.

Taurus: Much as you may be enjoying work right now, it's still a grind to get the $$$ coming in the way you want. Use the creative energy you're feeling to try a new approach. Your home life should be feeling benevolent and comfortable-- but in your career use care in making important decisions, your judgment could be off. Internally, your long-standing beliefs may start to feel less certain, signaling a new time of deep inner work and reassessment.

Gemini: It's been hard to feel good about yourself for a while, and you may seem more dour and less your usual sparkling self. The home front is a focus of energy right now, but watch your sharp temper with loved ones! Money flow should be fairly good, and you do want to have fun. Relationships are transforming, and the new forms will be better. Give it lots of time, be patient, and let the process unfold.

Cancer: Home is always important to you, dear Cancer, but now, it's on your mind constantly. It's an excellent time to redecorate, re-landscape or beautify in some way. Communication, writing, & speaking are highlighted, and your reputation continues to expand. Unfortunately, your waistline may continue to expand also. You have lots of energy now for earning money. Relationships continue to change, and are probably something of a mystery. If you just don't know if you're in a good one, get a reality check from a trusted friend.

Leo: Friends haven't been much fun for some time- they feel limited, limiting, and burdensome. Having your temper right on the surface hasn't helped, but that's not the real reason- you're maturing in important ways in your views of friendship. Love relationships are changing and evolving for you now too, sometimes slowly, sometimes suddenly, but definitely irrevocably. You must let it happen. Earning $$$ is a focus now- use your even-more-copious-than-usual charm to help the process.

Virgo: Resentments which have been brewing for some time are moving to the surface- take care to express them appropriately. The home front is shifting dramatically- it's hard to feel settled at all. Trust that the changes are a necessary evolution- it may take a while- but in the end, the new form will feel right. Career is a serious preoccupation now- you are reaping what you have sown on some level- and it's likely feast or famine or perhaps both in different ways. Expect sudden changes there also. Thankfully, friendships are expanding and helpful now. Issues of appearance and identity are a focus. You may receive a sudden windfall.

Libra: Although you may feel relegated to the background, be patient, you are preparing for a new debut. Even though you may think you are invisible, you are attractive and charming now, and people are drawn to you. Your speaking and writing are especially powerful and influential, make sure you're saying what you really mean. Your career should be going, and growing, fairly smoothly. Travel is limited, and you're probably dreaming of tropical beaches.

Scorpio: You have incredible determination for earning money now- but don't steamroll anyone, invincible Scorpio-karma does return, and quickly. Especially since your charm is in the basement right now. Your money-earning activities may also be in for changes- this could be good, as your partner's income is limited. Friendships and associations are more important to you than usual now- enjoy! You've been expanding your horizons for a while through study or travel, this serves your continual desire for evolution, so keep it up.

Sagittarius: You soon will be (or already are) creating sweeping changes in your identity, which may also include your appearance. You are a force to be reckoned with now, use care not to intimidate others. Your judgment with money has been- and may still be- not so great, get some help to set up a budget and stick to it. Career is a focus, which is good- personal relationships are heavier and more cumbersome than normal.

Capricorn: Sudden changes in your money situation, coupled with limitations in your work, have been making you uncomfortable. At least relationships have been peaceful for a while. You're in the mood to learn new things- give yourself permission to take a class or travel somewhere new. You may be in a cycle of spiritual or creative rebirth, or you might just be confused about who you are. Learn to find your security in the spiritual realm rather than in material things- that, at least, can never be taken from you.

Aquarius: You're at your most rebellious and iconoclastic these days (and have been for a while.) It's been hard to have fun though, creativity has been stifled, and children have been burdensome. Tempers have been running hot in your personal relationships. Your partner's finances should shine. Enjoy exploring new horizons. Friendships are intense and evolving- let go of those that are no longer appropriate for you.

Pisces: Much of your focus is on your partnership- it should be good now. It is a favorable time for dating and creativity as well. Relationships with children should be peaceful. Work has been a combat zone- this is ending soon- but there is no end in sight for the power struggles. Career is in transition- let it evolve at it's own pace. Don't force your agenda- paybacks can be brutal. Home life is dispiriting or heavy for some reason, but don't worry- you have the discipline to work it out.
