Certified Magi Astrologer

Traditional and Magi Astrology™

Local Readings and Classes, Parties and Special Events - Worldwide taped Readings by phone

11/18/02-- I am deeply honored, beyond words to express, to have been granted the title Certified Magi Astrologer by the President of the Magi Society on November 1. After many years of studying traditional western astrology (and practicing as a professional astrologer), I joined the Magi Society in 1999 and have been a devoted student of Magi Astrology ever since. I am now one of only three currently practicing Certified Magi Astrologers in the United States.

I am also thrilled to announce the debut of my official astrology website!! There is lots of information about astrology in general and Magi Astrology in particular. It is www.HelenAAstrologer.com. I hope you'll visit soon!

Monthly predictions for each Zodiac Sign for December 2002: As in all predictive columns, this is written based on the Solar House system. If you know your Ascendant (Rising Sign) read that section as well as your Sun Sign.

Aries: Things should really come together in relationships this month- singles will find dating an expanding universe, and committed lovers may find the spark they thought they'd lost. Learning, travel, or otherwise expanding your horizons is especially fascinating- you may feel almost obsessed with a new interest. This makes it easier to deal with friends and sibs who still don't live up to your expectations.

Taurus: You're increasingly drawn in to exploration of the inner plane- this is important work for you, as self-exploration is not typically something that interests you. Don't spend all your time overanalyzing your income slowdown though, it's just a phase and it will pass, though not for a while. Work continues as a passion, and home is still a safe haven. Relationships should brighten up and get much more interesting as the month progresses.

Gemini: Ooh là là, it's quite a month for love and passion! Relationships with siblings and neighbors should begin a growth phase and start to feel better than they have in some time. Learning experiences may be sudden or unusual- don't take it personally. You're maturing in your approach- that's not all bad!

Cancer: Your home life is spicy this month, and you may also be renovating or redecorating vigorously. That is, when you can tear yourself away from your near-obsession with work. Money flow is beginning a period of increase- enjoy! Relationships may still be uncertain in some way.

Leo: Watch the eating, drinking, and making merry this month- weight gain can be more of a problem than usual. You seem especially benevolent to everyone, but your mind is on Love, which may be found closer than you think! There's lots of fun around, but lasting relationships may still be unreliable. Hang in there and wait for your Cinderella Transits to meet your soulmate.

Virgo: Home and family become so important this month, it's too bad the domestic sands are still shifting at best and are really tumultuous at worst. You are feeling very romantic, though much of your passion and energy is directed toward money earning. Work remains challenging,

Libra: Your charm and sex appeal are center stage this month, with communication and friends highlighted. Single Librans will find dating still erratic, though committed Librans should find love running smoothly. Learning remains less easy than you would like. Siblings, neighbors or friends could be the key to new business opportunities.

Scorpio: Your notorious magnetism is in hiding this month. Career continues to expand and you're still riding a financial bullet train. Keep it up and enjoy! Don't try to overanalyze the continuing, sometimes puzzling changes and upsets at home-- seeking within is difficult at this time and the changes will continue nonetheless for a while.

Sagittarius: You are shining and powerful this month, and things have settled down somewhat at home. Friends are sexy, or lovers act as good friends. Committed relationships continue in a serious vein. At last, some travel is afoot and you're in a better position to learn and grow in new directions- which you always love!

Capricorn: You're more in the background this month, which usually doesn't trouble you, as long as you're still the puppet master. Career is a passion, even though daily routines are a difficult grind. Money continues to be uneven- though you could see a sudden windfall. Power, sex and personal growth are all areas of emphasis right now.

Aquarius: Your normal humanitarian impulses are really emphasized this month. Travel or schooling could bring a passionate encounter. Committed relationships are in for a lovely phase of growth and ease, but if dating, the pickings are scarce. You continue to embrace the unusual, and both your spirituality and intuitive creativity are running strong and deep.

Pisces: You are a force to be reckoned with in your career, and even the daily tasks feel good right now. Passions are still running strong. Home life remains tough or limited in some way. Your personal spirituality is shifting, perhaps suddenly, and you may be rebelling against something that used to be meaningful.

with many sudden changes, restricted advancement, but mysteriously, fairly good money flow.

Holiday Gift Certificates: I am offering special discounts of $35-$95 off for astrology readings, gift certificates, and the astrological selection of special dates, when purchased now through 12/31/02, and redeemed between 1/1/03- 3/1/03. What a great way to treat yourself, or your special someone!

Think of me when planning parties or special events in the Los Angeles and Ventura County areas this holiday season. Your Party or Special Event becomes truly memorable with fun & fascinating astrology readings! In a party or special event setting, individual or couples readings last approx. 8 minutes each. Readings are upbeat, humorous and fun- but also include important information to create take-home value for your guests. There's always a long line-- guests just love it!!

Upcoming trend watch- As I begin to choose wedding and incorporation dates for clients in 2003, it becomes clear how few good dates there will be in '03, due to 2 long-lasting negative transits- Jupiter contraparallel Saturn (the Nuclear Clash Transit) in helio from 3/8/03- 7/22/03, and Saturn opposite Chiron (the Heartbreak Transit) in geo from 8/23/03- 10/25/03. These are the 2 worst possible transits under which to begin any new endeavor. During the times indicated, the transits are either applying, or in position to set up negative progressions. Try very hard not to start anything important during these times, and tell your friends who may be planning weddings or other important new beginnings.

An important economic heads-up, well in advance-- Based on a great deal of research into 100+ years of economic patterns, I am predicting an economic bottom July 2004- January 2005 due to a Universal Saturn transit. Universal transits affect us all- our recent optimistic and expansive Universal Jupiter transit supported our economy through the end of 2001, and the current beneficial Universal Neptune transit still keeps business somewhat strong and consumer spending reasonably high through 8/10/03, when the bubble bursts. Then when the Universal Saturn transit begins in July of '04, expect consumer confidence to plummet, pessimism to reign, and businesses to retrench significantly. Obviously, this would be a horrible time frame to start a new job or business, launch a new product, or even get married. Firm up your financial foundations, get out of debt, stuff your mattress with $$$$ now while things are still OK, and you'll be able to take advantage of the rock-bottom buyer's market in stocks and real estate in early '05. I know that this is a very serious prediction, so please know that I've done my homework and I don't make this prediction lightly.

Reader Questions: "I am launching a big project and have delayed it through this year because of Venus Retrograde, Jupiter Retrograde, and then the holidays....how is February of next year, that was my target month..perhaps you could address that in an issue...." Although I still use many aspects of traditional western astrology, Magi Astrology is by far the most precise and accurate for matters of business (as well as love). In Magi Astrology, we can see long negative trends that might make us avoid beginning something new at those times, but for choosing times for super success, we look at specific days, as well as how those days interact with the person's own natal chart. February 2003 does have a couple of good days- 2/3/03 is a generally good day for weddings and other romantic beginnings, and 2/28/03 is a fairly good day for incorporations and other business beginnings. Remember, you must always take your own personal transits into consideration too. As far as retrogrades go, despite traditional astrology's deep mistrust of retrogrades, in Magi Astrology, retrogrades can set up some of the most favorable conditions for a super-successful day- with both applying super aspects and perpetual super progressions.

Noteworthy Magi Days: (Published by the Magi Society, these are days whose planetary patterns suggest strong general tendencies for one and all.) 12/13- a difficult day for lovers 12/23- best day during the holidays for love.
